

Six Standout Resources for Toddler & PreK

BUBBLE FUN

Soap, water, a tub (inside or outside), and a mixer. Whip up the bubbles, add some toys and let your toddler play.

WHY WE LOVE IT: A fun and free sensory experience that is easy to change up to keep things exciting.

NUMBER FUN

Use the template in the link, play dough, dice, ten Popsicle sticks and start practicing numbers.

WHY WE LOVE IT: This early numeracy activity can be easily done to practice early literacy with letters, too!

SORT & MATCH

This is the perfect life skill to practice in your kitchen. Put those busy hands to good use with this fine-motor activity.

WHY WE LOVE IT: It keeps them occupied and cleans up your kitchen cupboard.

TROUBLE WITH MONEY

The Berenstain Bears will encourage them to start thinking about making money on their own just as the cubs in this book decide to do.

PRO TIP: It's never too early to talk money and saving!

CARD COUNTING

Everyone has deck of cards floating around the house. Add a packet of beans for independent learning!

PRO TIP: Let the play at the kitchen table while you get some work done.

DISTANCE READ ALOUD

Connect with a grandparent or relative who is far away. Have them read a book to your child over Zoom or another platform while you read along.

WHY WE LOVE IT: It boosts literacy and fosters connection.

Six Standout Resources for Grades K-2

CARD COUNTING

Use playing cards and beans to teach addition and subtraction.

WHY WE LOVE IT: The beans are a great manipulate to help with counting. Plus, they're low cost or free if you already have a bag in your pantry!

ALPHABET HOPSCOTCH

Have your child shout out words that start with this letter as they hop on the letter.

WHY WE LOVE IT: You can practice your letters and sounds. Plus, get your wiggles out.

SUBTRACTION HAIRCUT

This activity is easy to set up and repeat to encourage your children to practice subtraction.

WHY WE LOVE IT: This can easily be used to practice addition, too.

WES RAPS

Enjoy this rap of a well-known book and afterward see if you can create your own.

WHY WE LOVE IT: It encourages literacy and creativity. Plus, it's just plain fun!

PRICES, PRICES, PRICES

Supply and demand is a basic economic principle. This picture book makes it kid-friendly!

WHY WE LOVE IT: It's a great way to get kids thinking about real world finances.

BUBBLE SNAKES

Don't be afraid to get a little messy! Food dye, a towel, dish soap, and an old water bottle will have you blowing rainbow bubbles in no time.

WHY WE LOVE IT: It's the perfect boredom buster!

Six Standout Resources for Grades 3-5

MEAL PLANNING

See how we impact the earth and then discuss swaps that you can make around your house together.

WHY WE LOVE IT: It is a hands-on way for learners to think about the environment.

THE BOAT THIEF

Download this critical thinking printable and put your learner's sleuthing skills to the test!

WHY WE LOVE IT: Subscribe to receive a weekly critical thinking problem.

BUDGET INTERVIEW

Either print the list or create a new Google Doc. Let your learner interview you about your budget.

PRO TIP: Don't be afraid to answer honestly and learn together.

ROCK, BROCK, AND THE SAVINGS SHOCK

Read the book and then discuss the concept of doubling and why saving is important.

PRO TIP: Stop along the way and encourage your child to ask questions as you read.

EVERYDOLLAR

Download the app and then sit down as a family to discuss budgeting.

WHY WE LOVE IT: This is a great follow-up to the budget interview to extend the learning for everyone!

MONEY METROPOLIS

Play the game, earn money by doing chores and watch your money grow.

WHY WE LOVE IT: Learn important money lessons for now (chores!) and later (adulthood!).

Six Standout Resources for Grades 6-12

KHAN ACADEMY

Take a course in entrepreneurship or any other subject matter!

WHY WE LOVE IT: This free self-paced learning tool covers core content areas and also focuses on personal finance and business skills.

PEOPLE'S PIE

One of many games from iCivics, this game teaches you budgeting from the federal level.

WHY WE LOVE IT: It's a hands-on way to learn more about taxes and borrowing.

LIBBY

The Libby app works with public libraries to put a ton of audiobooks and ebooks on your devices for free!

WHY WE LOVE IT: Take your favorite finance material on the go at no cost!

THE MILLIONAIRE NEXT DOOR

This is one of the foundation reads for anyone looking to start their personal finance journey.

WHY WE LOVE IT: In this book we get to learn about the habits, behaviors, and mindsets of every day millionaires who are mostly self-made!

SECRET MILLIONAIRE'S CLUB

Learn about stocks, finances, building a successful business and get advice from Warren Buffett, one of the most successful investors ever.

WHY WE LOVE IT: This animated series does a great job breaking down financial topics into easy to watch episodes.

SIMPLE STARTUP SKILLS

Who do you need on your team to make your business a success? What skills, knowledge, connections, and qualifications do you need?

WHY WE LOVE IT: Building a team of people who compliment your strengths rather than mirroring them, is a recipe for a great business!

